

Inner Envelope of Enclosure

These outlines represent the inner envelope of the telescope enclosure. The actual building would be about two feet wider and longer to allow for the widths of the walls. The concrete base pad is scaled toughly to allow for these larger sizes. The building would probable be somewhat taller, both to allow for the thickness of the roof and to give more clearance for the doors.

Tenn. State Univ.
CASS 2-m AST Project
05/20/97	AST-00-A02
J.A.E.	